

The World's average circulation for first two months of 1894, 433,167 per day.

Weather indications: Fair, warmer.

The Evening Edition of The World.

Circulation Rocks Open to All

A gain of 67,858 per day in One Year.

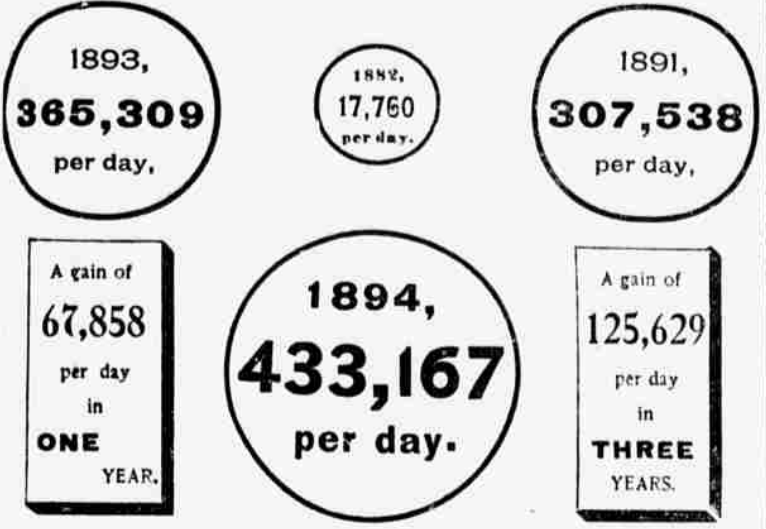

A gain of 125,629 per day in Three Years.

PRICE ONE CENT. BREAKS All Records = The World's Circulation For the First Two Months of 1894 Averaged, Daily, 433,167

THE WORLD'S ADVANCE
Its Daily Average Circulation the Largest on Record.

Section 717a. Every proprietor or publisher of any newspaper or periodical who shall wilfully or knowingly misrepresent the circulation of such newspaper or periodical for the purpose of securing advertising or other patronage shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [Chap. 650, Laws of 1893—pushed through by THE WORLD.]

AVERAGE CIRCULATION FOR FIRST TWO MONTHS OF

CIRCULATION OF THE WORLD
FOR
Each Day of January and February This Year
COMPARED WITH
Corresponding Days of Last Year and Three Years Ago:

	1891.	1893.	1894.
Jan. 1.	202,010	263,845	274,440
Jan. 2.	284,040	289,667	408,582
Jan. 3.	289,850	354,116	410,560
Jan. 4.	240,040	352,223	407,765
Jan. 5.	279,670	346,541	411,509
Jan. 6.	283,540	342,588	408,453
Jan. 7.	286,900	351,146	408,453
Jan. 8.	287,790	352,739	408,453
Jan. 9.	288,510	353,935	412,838
Jan. 10.	292,330	347,837	406,622
Jan. 11.	290,290	344,958	411,131
Jan. 12.	290,770	342,090	409,685
Jan. 13.	290,160	348,442	412,975
Jan. 14.	295,540	350,284	424,734
Jan. 15.	335,960	363,827	440,381
Jan. 16.	295,890	350,504	427,087
Jan. 17.	279,290	355,079	425,075
Jan. 18.	240,800	357,430	427,611
Jan. 19.	298,920	361,664	428,795
Jan. 20.	301,090	358,992	428,545
Jan. 21.	304,200	360,030	429,125
Jan. 22.	298,960	364,034	430,324
Jan. 23.	305,410	359,936	438,149
Jan. 24.	304,840	366,036	432,462
Jan. 25.	304,560	366,656	438,149
Jan. 26.	303,790	379,267	438,149
Jan. 27.	298,620	402,983	438,149
Jan. 28.	303,520	380,761	438,149
Jan. 29.	305,360	364,210	417,698
Jan. 30.	303,510	372,562	450,643
Jan. 31.	302,970	372,543	439,940
Feb. 1.	245,200	368,125	449,503
Feb. 2.	301,680	369,845	439,527
Feb. 3.	302,580	371,315	446,149
Feb. 4.	297,290	366,465	430,226
Feb. 5.	300,310	365,029	432,037
Feb. 6.	300,660	362,190	438,121
Feb. 7.	298,520	372,305	443,582
Feb. 8.	246,100	371,354	447,508
Feb. 9.	292,390	374,524	433,318
Feb. 10.	301,220	375,491	447,378
Feb. 11.	304,830	378,314	430,219
Feb. 12.	309,120	365,199	427,833
Feb. 13.	310,250	351,460	428,896
Feb. 14.	328,470	376,019	434,918
Feb. 15.	247,450	376,157	434,918
Feb. 16.	301,510	381,943	441,918
Feb. 17.	305,050	376,429	443,565
Feb. 18.	311,160	370,345	430,316
Feb. 19.	311,420	366,784	426,748
Feb. 20.	326,500	359,943	453,379
Feb. 21.	311,160	377,301	464,541
Feb. 22.	246,500	314,949	401,539
Feb. 23.	277,820	378,612	446,654
Feb. 24.	310,240	382,148	433,253
Feb. 25.	306,450	384,328	430,235
Feb. 26.	295,380	385,538	444,109
Feb. 27.	302,320	384,879	452,556
Feb. 28.	305,960	379,194	455,425
Weekly and Semi-Weekly	17,180,580	20,512,802	24,612,520
Grand Total	18,144,790	21,553,265	25,556,869
Daily Average	307,538	365,309	433,167

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.
WILL SERVE NO PEER.

So Say British Radicals Under Labouchere's Leadership.

They Declare a Rosebery Cabinet Will Last but a Week.

Gladstone's Resignation to Be Given to the Queen To-Morrow.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, March 2.—By command of the queen, Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone will proceed to Windsor Castle this afternoon, and will remain as the guests of Her Majesty until to-morrow.
At noon to-morrow, a Privy Council will be held at Windsor Castle, and upon this occasion Mr. Gladstone will tender his resignation of the Premiership.
The Earl of Kimberley, Lord President of the Council, Earl Spencer, First Lord of the Admiralty, and the other Ministers, with the exception of Lord Rosebery, will be present.
Mr. Gladstone is in excellent health and spirits to-day, and spent the forenoon quietly at home.
The Radicals, headed by Mr. Labouchere, have decided not to serve under any Peer, and they state that if Lord Rosebery is made Premier the existence of the new Ministry is limited to a week.
Mr. Labouchere has written a letter to the Right Hon. Edward Majoribanks, no Liberal Whip, saying that the feeling against a Peer assuming the Premiership is strong with the Liberals, as well as with the Radicals.
Mr. Labouchere says: "During the Tory Administration, the fact that the Premier was in the House of Lords was a stock complaint of the Radicals in and out of Parliament. Mr. Gladstone's popularity was largely due to the fact that he was regarded as the people's Minister, scarcely even old age, while holding the Premiership.
"Without his being in the House of Commons, we also complained, the party could not count in regard to its future leader, and we cannot for a moment admit that either the Queen or the Cabinet can select our leaders in secret convalescence.
"It is obvious that the Queen will select the man most grateful to the Court, instead of to the people. The secrecy maintained in regard to Mr. Gladstone, the semi-official denial up to the last moment, the manner in which his successor was sprung upon us, and the House, not sitting, have a very ugly aspect, and smacks of cabal and intrigue."
"That the Queen has a right to select the Premier is more true in theory than in fact, and it is probable that within the next few years, if we remain united, we shall sweep away the hereditary Chamber. When we welcome them in the House of Commons, as elected members, they will have no claim as others to lead us."

A DETECTIVE IN HER SUITE.
Princess Colonna Has Her Children Well Guarded from the Prince.
(By Associated Press.)
MONTREY, Cal., March 2.—Princess Colonna, with her children and suite, under the guardianship of John W. Mackay, Jr., have arrived here in a private car. A suite of six rooms in the Hotel Belmonte awaits them, and an hour after their arrival the Princess and her friends, Miss Simpson, together with Mr. Mackay and Philip B. Clark, of St. Louis, took dinner in the main dining hall.
In the suite are four servants and a well-built individual, who is said to be one of the most accomplished secret service gentlemen in the country. It is his business to keep an ever-watchful eye on the three children, lest they be spirited away by tacticians of Italy, employed by Prince Colonna.
Mr. Mackay says that he will remain with his sister constantly until the danger is over.
"I came to California," said the Princess, "for complete rest after the worries and anxieties of the past few months. I shall take the elements my home for the present, settling my old friends in San Francisco occasionally."

All Doubts Removed.
as to a permanent cure for alcoholism by a visit to the White Plains RECOVERY INSTITUTE.

The WORLD Almanac
IS A POCKET ENCYCLOPEDIA.
25 Cts.

JUMPING THEIR BAIL.

Indicted Election Clerks Fleeing from Justice.
Confessions Involving Bosses Confidentially Expected.

Fay Denounced as a Traitor and Sent Up for Five Years.

The trial of the indicted election inspectors was continued to-day before Justice Barrett in the court of sessions and Terminus. The fact that a number of these officials have disappeared, and are thought to have fled to escape conviction and punishment, was learned last night. Others have taken flight and may let their bondsmen answer for them, when they are called to the bar.
The rumor that some of these individuals may also inform on the prosecuting officers which will lead to the indictment and punishment of those higher in authority, has caused a good deal of anxiety among the political leaders and district bosses of the town.
Justice Barrett touched the vital point in the issue which has been brought to the front in the trial of these election fraud cases, when he said it was a pity the persons who were behind these violators of the law whom he was sentencing could not be brought before the bar and punished as they deserved. He added that they should be punished as severely as their tools and victims.
The question is being asked to-day, Why can they not be punished? According to Assistant District Attorney Wellman, there is no evidence against the big game unless some of the men who are now under indictment come forward and confess what rewards and promises were held out to their superior officers as an inducement to violate the election laws. That such rewards were offered to the election district captains and inspectors is a matter of common knowledge.
According to the "Corrupt Practices Act," any person who "furnishes money or other property, or engages to compensate any person for procuring or procuring the vote of any elector, or who makes any gift, loan, promise, offer, procurement, or agreement, as aforesaid, to, for, or with any person, in order to induce such person to procure, or endeavor to procure, the election of any person, or the vote of any voter at any election, is guilty of an indictable crime, which is punishable by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than a year."
Now that the small fry are beginning to show signs of general demoralization, it is believed in many quarters that they will be induced to bring out the principal actors in the election frauds of last November will be brought to light.
There was an air of expectancy in the court room this morning when Justice Barrett took the stand. It was believed that something sensational might come out in regard to the election frauds of last November. James J. Walsh, O'Donnell, Joseph Humphreys, James Collins, John Kiley and several other indicted persons, who were expected to have run away to avoid conviction and imprisonment.
The first matter disposed of, however, was the case of Michael S. Fay, the Republican inspector in the Nineteenth District of the County of New York, who was convicted last Wednesday. He was called to the bar for sentence for five years. James J. Walsh, O'Donnell, Joseph Humphreys, James Collins, John Kiley and several other indicted persons, who were expected to have run away to avoid conviction and imprisonment.
Justice Barrett said that while he was anxious to see the law enforced, he was not willing to see a man who had been convicted of a crime, and who had no money to pay his bail, be sent to the State Prison at hard labor for five years. He said that he would grant a writ of habeas corpus for the man, and that he would send him to the State Prison at hard labor for five years. He said that he would grant a writ of habeas corpus for the man, and that he would send him to the State Prison at hard labor for five years.

THE CURIOUS NET OF JUSTICE.

It Catches the Little Fish, the Big Ones Get Away.

ATTACKED BY 6 MEN.

Brutes Fiendishly Maltreat Intoxicated Lizzie Leonard.

Thrown Into a Basement and Her Clothing Torn Off.

Rescued by a Plucky Policeman, Who Made One Arrest.

A gang of six toughs surrounded Lizzie Leonard, a young woman twenty-five years of age, living at 97 Macdonald street, about 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The woman was intoxicated.
Three of the gang picked her up and threw her first down a flight of stone steps into the basement of the tenement-house at 171 Blocker street.
Three of the gang remained on the street while the other three attempted to assault the woman. She was injured by the fall, and fought her assailants like a lioness.
In the mean time two colored men, who had seen the woman thrown into the basement, rushed for a policeman. They found Policeman George H. Zimmerman on the corner of South Fifth avenue.
Zimmerman went back with the colored men and the three men who were on the street. They found the woman lying on the floor of the basement, and the three toughs then attacked her. The other three men, John Kelly, of Summit avenue, Jersey City, and hit him with his billy.
Zimmerman split the billy over the head of the man, and the man fell. The policeman had a hand to hand struggle. The latter finally overpowered the man.
Zimmerman then turned his attention to the woman. She was lying on her back, almost naked. The toughs had torn nearly every bit of her clothing off her.
Zimmerman helped the woman to dress and then took her to the station-house with his prisoner.
The man who had been thrown into the basement, and the policeman, were taken to the Jefferson Market Court this morning, and the policeman was released. The man who had been thrown into the basement, and the policeman, were taken to the Jefferson Market Court this morning, and the policeman was released. The man who had been thrown into the basement, and the policeman, were taken to the Jefferson Market Court this morning, and the policeman was released.

KILLED HER FALSE LOVER.

Memphis Woman Wounded in a Street Duel With Pistol.

(By Associated Press.)
MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 2.—"Have you seen my glove? I think I dropped it," said Mrs. Belle Wrench, a recently divorced woman, as she stepped in front of a saloon door on Main street last night. Before the man she addressed could reply, she whipped out a navy six-shooter and shot him through the thigh. The man sprang to his feet, and as he did so another bullet was sent through his stomach, bringing him to the earth.
In his recumbent position he shot the woman through the hip and arm, and she fell within a few feet of him. In this position both parties fired at each other until their pistols were empty. The woman is seriously wounded, and the man, J. W. Deeming, a saw-filer from West Virginia, is dead. He had alienated Mrs. Wrench's affections from her husband and then deserted her.
The injured man is Emil Strohach, thirty-eight years old, of 521 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, and is now lying in the hospital. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital, and his face was badly lacerated by the flying pieces of iron. He was able to go home last night.

SHOT THREE NEIGHBORS.

Then Albert Moss Returned Home and Killed Himself.

(By Associated Press.)
EUGENE, Ore., March 2.—Albert Moss and his father quarreled last night, and Albert Coleman, a farmer living nearby, took sides with the older Moss. Young Moss went to Coleman's house later and attacked a married daughter of Coleman, shooting her twice and killing her instantly. He then shot another daughter through the arm, and finally attacked Coleman, whom he shot through the abdomen and fatally injured. Moss then went home and blew out his own brains.
Tragedy at a Dance.
REDFORD, N. Y., March 2.—While a dance was in progress in Redford, George Hinkle, told his wife it was time for her to go home. W. H. Shahan, Jr., told her to go as long as the dance was in progress. He then shot her through the heart, but she did not die. She was taken to the hospital, and she died three days later. Her husband was arrested and charged with the murder.

CYLINDER EXPLODES.

Two Workmen Injured in a Carbonic Acid Gas Works.

Windows Shattered and School Children Badly Frightened.

The Accident Said to Be Due to the Men's Carelessness.

Two men were injured by the explosion of a cylinder charged with carbonic acid gas, in the works of the American Carbonic Company, 421 to 426 East Ninth street, shortly after 8 o'clock this morning.
The injured men are Emil Strohach, thirty-eight years old, of 521 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, and a man named John Kelly, of Summit avenue, Jersey City. Strohach's left arm was broken, and he was taken to Bellevue Hospital. Kelly's face was badly lacerated by the flying pieces of iron. He was able to go home last night.
The explosion shook the building and badly frightened a number of school children who were just arriving at Primrose School No. 25 across the street.
The cause of the explosion, according to the report, was that the cylinder was filled with gas, and the men were careless in handling it. The cylinder was filled with gas, and the men were careless in handling it. The cylinder was filled with gas, and the men were careless in handling it.

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.

M'KANE VACCINATED.

Convict 119-3 Worried Over the Small-Pox in Sing Sing.

With a Horse-Thief He Marches to Breakfast in the Lock-Step.

Spent a Restless Night, but His Appetite Is Good.

SING SING March 2.—At 6 o'clock this morning 1,340 convicts in Sing Sing Prison were marched from their cells to the lower dock with their buckets. All of the prisoners marched in the lock-step. The last man on the line was John Y. McKane. His hands rested on the shoulders of a horse-thief, sent up from New York last night. He was John Flood, who will serve a fifteen-year term of imprisonment.
McKane had considerable trouble in keeping step, as is always the case with new convicts. He and Flood frequently interfered with each other, and the result was that they both several times came near being tripped up.

DEUSTROW SEEKS DEATH.

St. Louis Murderer Makes Another Attempt at Suicide.

(By Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 2.—Dr. Arthur Deustrow, the millionaire murderer, who tried to commit suicide Wednesday night, made another attempt last night at midnight. This time he used his suspenders for a rope and was just in the act of kicking over the chair on which he stood when a guard rushed in and released him.
SCANDIA HAD TO PUT BACK.

She Had Started for New York—Her Ship Damaged.

(By Associated Press.)
SOUTHAMPTON, March 2.—The German steamer Scandia, Capt. Kopp, arrived here this morning, returning from a voyage to New York. She had started for New York on Monday, but her ship was damaged by a fire in the engine room, and she was forced to return to Southampton. The fire was caused by a fault in the engine, and it burned for several hours. The ship was damaged, but the crew and passengers were saved.

CHILD BADLY BURNED.

Henrietta, Flaherty's Clothing Caught Fire from a Stove.

Henrietta Flaherty, seven years old, named with her sisters at the Bellevue Hospital, where she was taken after being badly burned by a fire in the engine room. The fire was caused by a fault in the engine, and it burned for several hours. The ship was damaged, but the crew and passengers were saved.

INDEPENDENTS TO MEET TO-NIGHT.

By Invitation, the Independent Party will meet to-night at the Metropolitan Hotel, to discuss the election.

BOYS' DAY TO-MORROW.

A ton of boys' suits, all styles, one dollar each, will be sold to-morrow at the New York Store, 100 Broadway.

DON'T LOOK SHABBY.

When $1.00 will buy a handsome man's suit, why look shabby? To-day, $1.00 will buy a handsome man's suit, why look shabby? To-day, $1.00 will buy a handsome man's suit, why look shabby?